A Tradition of the Flood.

All the northern coast Indians have a tradition of a flood which destroyed all manland, except a pair from which the earth was again peopled. Each tribe gives the story a local coloring, but the plot of the legend is the same. The Bella Coola tradition is as follows:

The creator of the universe, Ets-sa-lu-nik, had great difficulty in the arrangement of the land and water. The earth persisted in sinking out of sight.
At last he hit upon a plan which worked very well. Taking a long line of twisted walrus hide he tied it around the dry land and fastened the other end to the corner of the moon. "Everything worked well for a long time, but at last the spirit became very much offended at the action of mankind, and in a fit of anger he seized his great stone knife and with a mighty back-swept the rope of twisted skin. Immediately the land began to sink into the sea. The angry waves rushed in torrents up the valleys, and in a short time nothing was visible except the peak of a very high mountain.

All mankind perished in the whelming waters with the exception of two, a man and his wife, who were out fishing in a big canoe. These two succeeded in reaching the top of the mountain and proceeded to make themselves at home.
Here they remained for some time until the anger of Ets-sa-lu-nik cooled, which resulted in his fishing up the severed trunk and again fastening it to the moon. From this pair thus saved the earth was again populated.—Victoria (B.
C.) Colonist.

Much Better Than Begging.

An urchin 9 years old, with a very dirty face and a pair of bright eyes, accosted a woman as she was hurrying across the common the other day.

"Please to give me some money to get me something to eat," he whined.

"No, I won't give you any money to get you something to eat," was the reply.

The lady mimicked his whine.

Finally she hired him to carry her umbrella to her office, and on their way further she gave him a dissertation on labor and its fruits in phrases she thought he would understand. She advised him to go into the newspaper business and loaned him 20 cents to invest in papers.

After he had signed his name to a contract she drew up, promising to pay her immediately he had cleared that amount.

In an hour and a half he came back to the office proudly and deposited the money loaned on her desk. She took 10 cents of it, and he kept the other to make further investments. The next day he cleared $1.50. He was radiant.

"This is better than begging, isn't it?"
he asked.

"You bet," he said.

"Now, if I give you this 10 cents, will you promise to buy with it what I shall ask you?"

"Yes'm."

"Then buy a cake of soap and use it,"
he said.

He said he would and went out.—Boston Herald.

A gentleman who reached New York last week at a two months' sojourn in Florida says that almost all of the women coming home from the winter resorts in iegated colors. In some cases the champagnes are attached to tiny gold chains and worn as personal ornaments.—New

A Mystery of the Sea.

Who can explain the contradictions and mysteries of the sea? Here is the huge steel steamship Naronic, well built and well manned, well found in all particulars, supposed to have gone down with all on board, while a small, fragile bark, which was abandoned by her crew a humble wreck in the north Atlantic last November, late, scuttles and heaves, survived all the winter tempests and been picked up at sea and towed into a British port in safety.—Boston Transcript.

Ancient Tombs to Be Opened.

It is announced that the alabaster quarries of King Teti and the tombs of Sheikh Sadi at Cairo, which are now being excavated by Percy Newberry and a survey party sent out by the Egyptian exploration committee, will be open to the public next winter. The discoveries already made range from 3800 B. C. to 1400 B. C., and include some notable basreliefs and inscriptions.

HALE METHOD OF PAINLESS FILLING.

NEW DEPARTURE IN DENTISTRY!

DR. PORTER HAS RETURNED for the purpose of advertising the

"Hale Method of Painless Filling."
Absolutely painless without Chloroform, Ether, Gas or Cocaine

OFFICE IN SUNDERLAND'S BUILDING, VIRGINIA ST., RENO

Here are a Few Testimonials from Citizens Who have Already Tried the Method:

Dr. Porter—DEAR SIR:—It affords me pleasure to say that the Hale method of painless filling opens a new era in the dental world. After having several very sensitive cavities filled by you with gold and amalgam with gratifying results, I am of the opinion that the method is far beyond competition.
PATRICK HENRY.

Dr. Porter—DEAR SIR:—In answer to your request for my candid opinion as to the Hale method of painless filling, I beg to state that I went to one of Dr.
Leek's finest operators in San Francisco, and he filled several teeth for me with more or less pain; but when he came to the one you have just filled, it was simply impossible for me to endure the torture, consequently I asked him to stop, which he did. I thought I would be obliged to have the tooth extracted.
I wish to state that in five minutes after you commenced to operate there was positively no pain; it felt just as if you were cutting a piece of wood. I am so highly pleased with the manner in which you filled the tooth that I feel it but just to express my appreciation of the method. It is all you claim for it.
CHARLES HOPE.

Dr. Porter—DEAR SIR:—I have had teeth extracted before by so-called painless methods, but you are the only operator who has extracted teeth for me without pain. Your method of extracting surpasses my most sanguine expectations.
MRS. H. FLECKENSTEIN.

Dr. Porter—DEAR SIR:—It gives me great pleasure to state that I am thoroughly convinced of the excellence of your method. I expected to suffer dreadfully having the cavity filled, as it was the worst one I had to have done. In about five minutes after you began to work on it I was satisfied that I would not hurt, which it did not during the entire operation. The tooth you extracted is one I have been dreading for eight years, and after consulting dentists in Sacramento, who advised me not to have it removed, as the ordeal might prove injurious to my health and also disfigure my face. You extracted the tooth without a particle of pain, and I will have no further dread of the dental chair, providing I can obtain the Hale Method.
MARY E. FLECKENSTEIN.

Dr. Porter—DEAR SIR:—After using Hale's Painless Method as administered by you in the extraction of teeth, I can bear testimony that the results are satisfactory, and that teeth can be extracted painless by said method.

Resolved to read the world in its especial field of usefulness. I am particularly impressed with it, owing to the fact that one does not lose consciousness while having teeth filled, and at the same time does not suffer a particle of pain. You are at liberty to refer any one who contemplates having sensitive teeth filled to me.

FINANCE, NOT TARIFF, THE ISSUE.

A dispatch in yesterday's JOURNAL stated that the president in reply to a direct question by a representative of the Associated Press said he intends to convene congress in extra session not later than September 15th. He does not think it amiss that the people should be informed that the time is at hand when their representatives in congress should be called upon to deal with the financial condition which is the only menace to our country's welfare and prosperity. "It is well," he says, "for the people to take up the subject for themselves and arrive at their own conclusions as to the merits of a financial policy which obliges us to purchase idle bullion with gold taken from the reserve."

The language attributed to the president is doubtless authentic. If so, it proves that in the opinion of the chief magistrate the silver men were right when they asserted in the campaign last fall that the financial, not the tariff, question was the real issue before the people. It is now, as it was then, the only menace to our country's welfare and prosperity. The tariff is a question of such rules, which principally concerns those engaged in certain industries; the financial question deals directly with money and affects the whole people. One determines which of certain articles of consumption shall be taxed highest to provide revenue for the support of the government; the other whether one-half the money of the constitution shall be demonetized, and the latter alone in the opinion of the president menaces the welfare and prosperity of the people.

The financial policy which obliges us to purchase silver bullion with gold taken from the reserve is to be deplored, but it is not the law but the custom of the treasury department that makes it obligatory to take gold from the reserve to pay for idle silver bullion. The act of 1890 directing the purchase of 4,500,000 ounces of silver bullion monthly provides that the notes issued in payment of that bullion shall be redeemable in coin. Whether the coin shall be gold or silver is left to the discretion of the secretary of the treasury. Should that official decide to redeem the notes issued in payment of silver bullion with silver coin he would be complying with the strict letter of the law. He is not obliged to pay out gold for those notes unless there is no silver coin available for the purpose and the law empowers him to provide against such a contingency by having sufficient of the bullion coined into standard dollars to redeem the notes paid for the bullion. If the law obliged the secretary of the treasury to take gold out of the reserve fund to pay for silver bullion to be stored in the treasury vaults the people of all sections of the country would certainly demand its repeal, but it is the policy inaugurated under Harrison's administration and which is strictly adhered to by the present administration, not the law, that obliges the treasury department to purchase such coin.

The law does not obligate the secretary of the treasury to purchase silver bullion to be stored in the treasury vaults with gold, but on the contrary it authorizes him to pay for such bullion and to have coined from time to time as much of the silver bullion as may be necessary for that purpose. If the secretary stood by the Chicago platform, which pledged his party not to discriminate against either gold or silver, he would not be obliged to encroach on the reserve to pay for idle silver bullion, but instead would have every mint in the country coining the idle silver bullion to redeem the treasury notes issued to purchase the bullion.

If the president is correctly quoted by the Associated Press representative he makes a very weak argument against the tariff directing the purchase of silver bullion and a very strong one against the policy of paying out gold exclusively for the redemption of treasury notes.

ANTI-TRUST CONVENTION.

The Minnesota legislature last winter investigated the coal trust in that state and found that its ramifications extended east to Pennsylvania and that no wholesale dealer was permitted to supply a retail dealer with coal who was not licensed by the trust. The feeling aroused against trusts of all kinds was intense and the legislature, in compliance with the general wish, adopted a resolution authorizing the governor to take action toward stopping the formation of trusts in all parts of the country. In accordance with this resolution Governor Nelson issued a call for a national anti-trust convention to be held in Chicago the first Monday in June. Thirty-four states responded to the call and nearly that number were represented in the convention when it was called to order. Governor Nelson delivered an address reviewing the operations of the trust in Minnesota and said the national anti-trust law was inadequate and too general in its terms. The legislatures of the several states must be rolled upon to pass laws specifically defining acts constituting a trust and affixing penalties which can be readily determined and enforced.

The congress of the United States passed an anti-trust law which it is the duty of the attorney general to enforce. For some reason that official has not yet made a move publicly against the trusts. They are falling to pieces from their own rottenness, nevertheless. The cordage trusts, of which there were two, were the first to go under, but the whisky trust, which was capitalized for seven or eight times its value, is still property, soon followed. Others are now tottering, and it has been surmised that Attorney General Olney, whose duty it is to prosecute them, is uprooting them in some mysterious way not known to the public.

ANTI-TRUST CONVENTION.

Exciting Times and Thirty Members Boit.

CHICAGO, June 6.—When Governor Nelson of Minnesota called the anti-trust convention to order it was expected the first fight of the session would begin, for it was generally known that Donnelly of the radical faction had been beaten in the committee of resolutions and would carry the fight to the floor. In the convention Chairman Rosewater of the committee on resolutions no sooner read the preamble than Donnelly moved as a substitute a demand for the government purchase of anthracite coal lands. Henry D. Lloyd of Chicago wanted bituminous lands also purchased and the fight on those two amendments lasted two hours after which Rosewater moved the previous question and the committee report was carried. The fight was kept up all day, however, by the extremists, but they were out-voted at every turn. The resolutions adopted set forth at length the evils of the trust system as at present maintained and call upon the convention to create a permanent association to be known as the anti-trust association of the United States, consisting of three representatives from each State and Territory; also the organization of an anti-trust association in securing uniform legislation and the rigid execution of laws. The resolutions declare over capitalization of corporate property largely responsible for the breaking down of credits and the financial distress now prevailing. The resolutions were not radical enough to suit the Donnelly-Weaver element and they gave notice of another meeting at the Palmer House to-night.

Before the close of the central hall meeting J. H. Quinn of the Butte, Montana Miner offered a free coinage resolution which was passed by a small majority.

RUSSIAN EXTRADITION TREATY.

After Negotiations for Six Years it is Ratified.

SPECIAL TO THE JOURNAL.]
WASHINGTON, June 6.—The Russian extradition treaty, which has been a subject of negotiation between the two contracting parties for more than six years and has been amended again and again, and which was threatened with defeat in its final stages, has at last been formally proclaimed and will henceforth be the law of the land until it is superseded by another treaty. The ratifications were exchanged in St. Petersburg nearly two months ago but because it was necessary to observe extraordinary precautions to secure the safe transmission of the document to the United States the treaty was not received at the department until a late day last week.

The treaty is in the French language and it has been necessary to translate the document into English and make a very careful comparison between the translation and the original. This work was completed yesterday and today the president saw it for the first time when Secretary Gresham carried it to the cabinet meeting. All that remained to be done was the official proclamation and that was done this afternoon. The proclamation itself was dated yesterday and simply recited the provisions of the treaty with the announcement that it would go into effect twenty days from date; that is to say June 24th. Interest is centered on the sections making attempts upon the lives of the heads of governments or accessories to such attempts extraditable.

These sections in the treaty as officially promulgated are precisely identical in language with the sections published in the Washington dispatches of the Associated Press, April 22d last.

It is asserted in official quarters that in spite of all that has been said about the treaty, it is similar in scope to all extradition treaties negotiated by the United States in recent years.

Three Spokane Banks Close Their Doors.

SPECIAL TO THE JOURNAL.]
SPOKANE, Wash., June 6.—Three banks closed their doors to-day. They have assets largely in excess of their liabilities and have been conducted with sound management. They were caught in the sudden whirl and flurry, and the public suddenly became alarmed and the distance from the money centers prevented timely fortification.

When the banking hours arrived this morning the Washington National and the Washington Savings banks, allied institutions, failed to open their doors. They had been subjected to a heavy run the day before, and although they had made arrangements for money it failed to arrive in time. This startled the public and the run started anew upon all the banks. By 1 o'clock it had almost entirely subsided, but relief came too late for the Citizens' National which closed its doors at 2 o'clock. The other banks stood the strain with no visible signs of weakening, and since they have been strengthening themselves and the worst of the flurry is believed to be over. It is generally believed that there will be no more suspensions.

Lizzie Borden's Trial Commenced.
SPECIAL TO THE JOURNAL.]

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., June 6.—The trial of Lizzie Borden for the murder of her father and stepmother in Fall River began this morning with a statement of the case on behalf of the commonwealth by Attorney Moody who rehearsed the details of the crime as already told in these dispatches. He related many instances to show that ill-will long existed between Lizzie and her stepmother.

Though Miss Borden gave no signs of being affected by the address, she fainted just as the speaker concluded. When she revived the state put on as the first witness Thomas Kierman, a civil engineer, who minutely described the Borden house and surroundings. Adjourned till to-morrow.

After the adjournment of court the jury went to Fall River and carefully viewed the scene of the murder.

A Chinese Tragedy.

SPECIAL TO THE JOURNAL.]
LOS ANGELES, June 6.—A horrible tragedy was enacted in Chinatown this morning. Quan Ah Moon, a high-binder, ran a dirk knife eight inches long through Sue How and shot Wong Ah Sip twice through the lungs. The woman is dead and the man is not expected to live many hours. Sue How was a pretty Chinese girl. Wong Ah Sip heard her scream when attacked by Moon and when he attempted to save her Moon drew a revolver and fatally shot him. Quan Ah Moon has not been discovered by the police.

A Dead Nobleman.

SPECIAL TO THE JOURNAL.]
SAN FRANCISCO, June 6.—Baron de Tuyl, an English nobleman, died Friday on the steamer Gaelic while on his way from Honolulu to this port. He had been on a tour around the world, in company with a physician, in search of health.

Baroness de Tuyl had been summoned to meet him here, and was much shocked when the steamer arrived today with the remains of her husband. Escape With $10,000.
ROGERS, Ark., June 6.—The robbers who successfully robbed the People's bank at Bentonville yesterday seem to have made good their escape with the booty, amounting to about $10,000. They also robbed a store at Deatur and had a running fight with the sheriff's posse. While at Deatur the leader was recognized as one of the notorious Starr brothers.

WEATHER-CROP BULLETIN.

Report Published by the U. S. Department of Agriculture.
WASHINGTON, D. C., May 31, 1899.
TEMPERATURE.

The week has been slightly warmer than usual on the Atlantic coast southward of Virginia, along the gulf coast, in central and southern Texas and eastern New Mexico, but the excess of temperature in this region has nowhere exceeded an average of 3 deg. per day, and only in parts of North Carolina, Georgia, Florida, southern Louisiana and eastern Texas has it amounted to 3 deg. per day.

In New England nearly normal temperature conditions prevailed, while throughout the remainder of the country the week has been cooler than usual, the deficiency exceeding 6 deg. per day, over the whole regions extending from Michigan and Indiana westward to the Rocky mountains. The greatest deficiency in temperature from 7 deg. to 10 deg. per day occurred over the region from the upper Mississippi valley westward to Utah and Idaho.

Light frosts occurred in Minnesota on the 23d and heavy frosts on the same date in South Dakota, Kansas, Nebraska and Oklahoma. Heavy frosts also occurred in the upper Missouri valley on the 27th, and in the northern and central Rocky mountain regions on the 26th, 27th and 28th. Fruit and vegetables are reported to have sustained slight injury in North Dakota and Utah. Elsewhere no damage from frosts is reported.

The season from March 1 to date has been slightly warmer than usual in the Carolinas, Georgia, Florida, southern Louisiana and eastern Texas. About the normal temperature conditions have prevailed in the lower lake region and a slight deficiency exists in New England and the middle Atlantic States. Elsewhere the season has been decidedly cooler than usual, the greatest deficiency occurring over the region from the upper Mississippi valley westward to Idaho, where the daily average is from 4 deg. to 6 deg. below the normal.

PRECIPITATION.

From the lower lakes and upper Ohio valley eastward to New England there has been less rain than usual. There has also been less than the usual rainfall in southern Florida, along the gulf coast, from Texas northward to the Dakotas, and on the north Pacific coast.

In the central Mississippi, lower Missouri, and lower Ohio valleys and thence southeastward to the middle and south Atlantic coasts there has been more than the usual amount of rain, the fall being excessively heavy in western Tennessee and eastern Arkansas, where from seven to ten inches of actual rainfall occurred. Notwithstanding this exceptional fall of rain the reports from Arkansas and Tennessee indicate that no serious injury resulted. The telegram from Louisiana, however, states that two-thirds of east Carroll Parish are under water and that damage is anticipated between the Mississippi and Bayou Rivers in Catahoula Parish.

The seasonal rainfall from March 1st to May 29th is generally below the average on the Atlantic coast, in the gulf States and from Texas northward to western South Dakota; it has also been deficient over portions of the lower lake region. Over portions of Illinois and eastern Missouri the seasonal fall exceeds the average by more than ten inches.

Generally the week ending May 29th has been favorable to crops in the Atlantic coast and gulf States, and the condition of cotton is reported to have been decidedly improved in the Carolinas, Georgia, Florida and Texas. In the west and northwest, however, while the weather has been favorable for the prosecution of farm work, it has been too cool for rapid advancement of vegetation and quick germination of seeds.

Death of R. P. M. Kelly.

A private dispatch to the JOURNAL from Mrs. R. P. M. Kelly received shortly before 12 o'clock announced the death of Mr. Kelly at Oakland, Cal., which occurred at 9:15 last evening. Mr. Kelly was well known in Reno, having been in business here for many years. Lately he was located at Seattle, Wash., where he was engaged in business, and but a few weeks ago disposed of his property there and went to Oakland, Cal., for medical aid. At the time of his departure from Seattle but little or no hopes were entertained of his recovery as he was suffering from cancer of the stomach.

The Carson News says Oliver Lou Roberts, aged 11, fired with the ambition to emulate the example of Buffalo Bill, while chasing a playmate with a parlor rifle accidentally discharged the weapon and shot the little daughter of Mr. Kilday in the head. The bullet penetrated the skull but Dr. Guinan was unable to find the ball and he thinks that it passed out again.

THE FOURTH OF JULY.

All the Railroads Make Special Rates—Military Companies.

General Powning, chairman of the Committee of Arrangements on the Fourth of July celebration, has been corresponding with the several railroad companies relative to reduced rates to Reno on the ensuing Fourth of July and has received favorable replies from each and all. D. A. Bender, general freight and passenger agent of the Virginia and Truckee, makes the following rates:

From Steamboat and Huffakers to Reno, 50 cents; Lakeview and Carson, $1; Empire, $1.25; Brunswick, Mound House, Gold Hill and Virginia, $1.50; Dayton, $2; Wabaska, $4; Schurz, $5; Hawthorne, $7; Soda Springs, $8; Rhodes and Belleville, $9; Candelaria, $10.

"Tickets from points on the Carson and Colorado Railway would be for regular trains only."

J. M. Fulton, master of transportation of the N.C.O. Railway, writes:

"We will sell round-trip tickets on July 2d from Amdeed to Reno and return for $3, and from Chat to Reno and return for $2. The same rates will apply from intermediate points. These tickets will be good for return until and on July 7th, then void."

The Southern Pacific have granted the committee half-rates from all points in California and Nevada to Reno and return, good from the 3d to the 7th of July inclusive.

The Eureka and Palisade Railway have made a $5 rate from Eureka to Palisade and return good from the 3d to the 7th, inclusive.

Captain J. W. Tracey, Battery A, Nevada National Guard, writes General Powning "that at a special meeting held by Battery A, N. N. G., on June 2nd, 1899, the invitation of the citizens of Reno to celebrate the 11th Anniversary of American Independence was received and unanimously accepted, and we will have a representation of 42 men, rank and file, not including the band."

"One of the wonders which visitors at the world's fair will see in Chicago is the removal of a granite front brick building across lots. The building is three stories high and contains eighty rooms. It weighs about 3,000 tons and it took weeks to raise it from its foundation on jack-screws and place it on a frame containing about 200,000 square feet of lumber. The removal of this building though not intended for a world's fair exhibit will be one of the great attractions."

The daily publication of the Tuscarora Times-Review has ceased and the paper will be issued once a week until business warrants a resumption of the daily. Cause: A general stagnation of our leading industry in consequence of the low price of the white metal, with its paralyzing effect upon all other branches of business.

A FINANCIAL VOLCANO.

Caused by Goldbug Contractionists Making a Mad Effort to Absorb the Earth.

For the past month the wires have been burdened with accounts of suspended banks, railroads going into the hands of the receivers and financial wrecks of all kinds. The goldbugs lay the blame of this condition of affairs to what is known as the bullion purchase act of 1890. Their remedy is to repeal this act, and if that does not give us money enough then go in the open market and buy gold with interest-bearing bonds. In this way they expect to strengthen the credit of Uncle Sam with the goldbug bondholders. Wall street has very forcibly impressed upon the perceptive faculties of President Cleveland and Secretary Carlisle the necessity of maintaining the credit of the nation with the shyllocks at any cost. No matter if it bankrupts every corporation in the south and west the awe-inspiring dignity of the northeastern and European bondholders must and shall be maintained. Rothschilds and their few cohorts must not be trifled with in their efforts to absorb the earth. Compound interest on a gold basis is their rallying cry.

At the present time they only hold some $28,000,000,000 worth of national bonds, all payable in gold. As this amount of bonds calls for seven times as much gold as there is in existence, it looks as if it ought to satisfy the most grasping shyllock, but their thirst for plunder cannot be quenched.

After they would have absorbed the earth and all its contents and they could no longer have the pleasure of collecting interest from their bondholders, they would doubtless make a stupendous effort to get an interest-bearing mortgage on some or all of the other planets.

But there is liable to be a hitch in their calculations. The Populists are determined to contest the right of the shyllocks to control financial legislation for that portion of the earth occupied by Uncle Sam.

The old story of the goldbugs that this is a commercial nation of the first magnitude, and that our traffic with foreign countries is of such vast proportion that we must conform to their views of finance, has led the people of this country into bankruptcy. For the fiscal year ending June 30, 1899, our foreign trade amounted to about $2,000,000,000. For the same year our domestic traffic amounted to more than $90,000,000,000. If the goldbugs succeed, we are to sacrifice our domestic traffic and become business cannibals in order that a few dyspeptic shyllocks may control the currency and keep the people in everlasting bondage.

FARMER

Will Not Issue Bonds.

SPECIAL TO THE JOURNAL.]

WASHINGTON, June 6.—The Star says: President Cleveland's statement as to the time when he proposed to call congress and the reasons which lead him to do so is clearly interpretable as indicating a determination on his part to continue using the gold reserve to the extent necessary and not issue bonds. He desires that the full gravity of the situation should be apparent at the time of the meeting of congress so the legislative branch of the government shall have the duty pressing upon them to correct the laws protecting finances. To-day the treasury department gained nearly $1,000,000 in gold, offsetting the amount taken yesterday for shipment. This makes the net treasury gold about $90,000,000.

A MOTHER'S DARNSE.

Dead! my wayward boy—my own—
Not the law's! but mine—the good God's free gift to me alone.
Sanctified by motherhood.
"Bad," you say, well, who is not?
"Brutal!"—with a heart of stone?
And "red handed?" Ah, the hot Blood upon your own!
I come not with downward eyes
To plead for him shamefully;
God did not apologize
When he gave the boy to me.
Simply, I make ready now
For his verdict. You prepare—
You have killed us both—and how Will you face us there?
—James Whitcomb Riley

Collecting Chinese Coins.
"The earliest Chinese coins that I have heard of," said Consul Bedloe, "date from the dynasty which ruled from 253 to 307 B. C."
"From that time until today these useful little coins have been used by every monarch, no matter whether he was an emperor of the entire country or king of one of the petty principalities into which from time to time the Chinese empire was broken. There have been over 1,200 occupants of the various thrones, royal and imperial. In addition to these regular issues, if such they may be called, there have been special issues from time to time and also special local issues. A wealthy mandarin in Canton is said to have the finest collection extant, containing 25,000 specimens of different kinds."

The cost increases as you go backward in time. The cash of this century can be secured at their nominal face value. Those of the eighteenth and seventeenth centuries bring from 1 cent to 10 cents each. Those of the Han dynasties bring $100 each when in fine state of preservation.—Philadelphia Bulletin.

Artificial Maple Sugar.
Decoctions or extracts of the wood or bark of trees are frequently used for flavoring sirups or sugars. Different extracts differ in taste. The hickory tree, it is said, yields an extract that will impart the flavor of the maple, and Daily's method of producing artificial maple sirup of sugar is as follows: Make an extract of hickory bark or wood by allowing water to percolate through the same. The bark or wood may be ground, or sawdust therefrom used. Hot water may be used, or the material boiled in water. The strength of the extract may be increased by increase of the quantity of the wood or bark. To one gallon of hot or boiling sugar sirup add, say, three table-spoonsful of the hickory extract. It is said the effect of the extract is to produce a flavor that renders the sirup indistinguishable from genuine maple sugar. If the sirup is boiled down, a sugar resembling maple sugar in taste is produced.—London Public Opinion.

Poverty and Clothes.
One marked difference between the poor poor in the English cities and the corresponding class in American towns is that the latter buy their clothing of tailors and manufacturers, and therefore get it new, while the English poor, and particularly the English women of low estate, prefer the castoff finery of "the rag trade," that is to say, the second-hand shops. The result is that the American laborer and his wife make a better appearance in their cheap but simple and suitable garments than the London navvy or hawker, with a shiny, ill fitting broadcloth, and his wife in a garish hat with broken feathers and unfashionable, not to say bedraggled, skirts.—New York Sun.

Thackeray in Conversation.
Mr. Sala says that when Thackeray was not in "a tetchy temper caused by extreme physical anguish" he was one of the most delightful talkers it is possible to imagine. "There were very few subjects indeed on which he could not talk and talk admirably. He was as proficient in the French and in the German as in the English language. He was never tired of discussing about books and bookmen, about pictures and painters, about etchers and engravers and lithographers, and, moreover, he was a born wit and a polished epigrammatist."—New York Tribune.

An Anecdote of Ben Wade.
"In the early winter of 1867" blurt Ben Wade, the Ohio senator, is credited with saying, "When Chief Justice Taney was ill, I used to pray daily and earnestly that his life might be preserved until the inauguration of President Lincoln, who would appoint a Republican chief justice, but when I saw how complete his recovery was and how long his life was prolonged I began to fear that I had overdone the business."—Chattenden's "Personal Reminiscences."

Defining a Kleptomaniac.
Teacher—What is a kleptomaniac?
Pupil—One who steals things for which he has no use.
Teacher—Very good. Can you give me an illustration?
Pupil—Charley Jones says my sister has stolen his heart, and Lil says she has no use for it.—Boston Transcript.

"August Flower"

The Hon. J. W. Fennimore is the Sheriff of Kent Co., Del., and lives at Dover, the County Seat and Capital of the State. The sheriff is a gentleman fifty-nine years of age, and this is what he says: "I have used your August Flower for several years in my family and for my own use, and found it does me more good than any other remedy. I have been troubled with what I call Sick Headache. A pain comes in the back part of my head first, and then soon a general headache until I become sick and vomit. At times, too, I have a fullness after eating, a pressure after eating at the pit of the stomach, and sourness, when food seemed to rise up in my throat and mouth. When I feel this coming on if I take a little August Flower it relieves me, and is the best remedy I have ever taken for it. For this reason I take it and recommend it to others as a great remedy for Dyspepsia, &c."

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE STATE of Nevada, in and for Washoe County: The State of Nevada sends to George Ferguson greeting: You are hereby required to appear in an action commenced against you as defendant by O. C. Koss and K. H. Leigh as plaintiffs in the District Court of the State of Nevada, in and for the county of Washoe, and answer the complaint therein within ten days after the service on you of this summons (exclusive of day of service). If served in said county, or twenty days if served out of said county, but within said district, and in all other cases forty days, or judgment by default will be taken against you according to prayer of said complaint. The action is brought to enforce payment of a judgment of the court forever quieting the title of the plaintiff in and to the east 1/2 of the S 1/2 and west 1/2 of N 1/2 of Sec. 23, in T. 33 N. R. 13 E., M. D. M. M. The plaintiff claims uninterrupted adverse possession thereof under a claim of right for more than seven years, and the title thereto in fact and in law is in the plaintiff, and this action is brought to annul such adverse claim and to quiet said title to said lands and premises, and to perpetually enjoin defendant from ever asserting any claim to said premises adverse to the plaintiff, and for costs.
All of which will more fully appear from the complaint, which is on file in the office of the clerk of said court, at Reno, in said county, and to which you are especially referred. And you are further advised that if you fail to appear and answer said complaint the said plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief demanded.
In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of said court, at Reno, this 25th day of April, A. D. 1902.

A Big Bit of Crude Rubber.
One of the interesting objects in the lower part of the city is a piece of crude Para rubber that weighs 1,300 pounds. It resembles a rough casting of iron and is in the shape of a bell. In the window where it is exhibited is a shoe of rubber like those worn by the Indian women of Brazil. Its ornamentation is beautiful. The toe is crimped, while on the instep and the quarters are flowers, the daisy and the pansy. It seems to be a very comfortable shoe. Leather is not unknown to the Indians who have in the rubber district, but rubber with them takes the place of wood, iron and cloth.—New York Tribune.
